BOMB FOUND UNDER HOME OF OPPONENT TO ORGANIZED LABOR

Infernal Machine Under Residence of Secretary of Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association Consists of Fifteen Sticks of Dynamite

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—Additional excitement was caused during the early forenoon hours by the report which reached police headquarters that a dynamite bomb had been found under the residence of Secretary J. J. Zeehandelaar of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association on Carland street. Zeehandelaar as secretary of the Merchants' Association has been active in conjunction with the Los Angeles Times in opposition to the labor unions, and much personal animosity has been aroused against him among the labor men.

BOMB IS FOUND.

The infernal machine was found by Special Officer Headrickson, who reported the matter immediately to police headquarters. One of the police following immediately dispatched a detail of officers to the scene. He instructed Officer

Headrickson to place the infernal machine, which was of clock work design, in an isolated place, where if it exploded no damage would result. Sergeant Adams, in charge of the squad sent to Zeehandelaar's house later, reported to Chief Callaway that the bomb was a genuine one. No arrests have been made. Zeehandelaar was at his office at the time but went immediately to his home in an automobile.

BOMB OF DYNAMITE.

The bomb was found to consist of 15 sticks of dynamite attached to a fuse with clock work. It was taken by the officers to a vacant lot in the vicinity. As soon as word of the discovery of the bomb became known in the neighborhood, there was a general exodus of people in the vicinity. The police were unable to figure out when the bomb was timed to explode.

Reward Offered for Arrest of Fiends

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—The City Council today voted $25,000 as a fund to be used to run down the perpetrators of the alleged dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times, $2500 of which is made available as a reward for the capture of the culprit or culprits.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—O. A. Tveitmoe, secretary of the State Building Trades Council, has offered a reward of $7500 for the conviction of the perpetrators of the Los Angeles Times explosion.

Union Labor Parade Plan Abandoned

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—Mayor Alexander, the city council, the city attorney, chief of police and other municipal officials meeting in executive session with the officials of various local union labor councils, today mutually agreed to call off the scheduled union labor parade which was to have been held in the city Monday. The parade was arranged by the unions for the purpose of protesting against the recent anti-picketing ordinance and other alleged anti-union labor conditions existing in the city. It was agreed that such an assemblage in the midst of the present excitement would be unwise.

LIST OF THE DEAD AND INJURED

HARVEY C. ELDER, assistant city editor Times, leaped from third-story window and died in hospital.
J. WESLEY REAVES, secretary to Assistant General Manager Chandler, body believed in ruins.
R. L. SAWYER, telegraph operator, aged 34, married, two children; body believed in ruins.
HARRY L. CRANE, assistant telegraph editor, aged 38, married, one child; body believed in ruins.

Among Those Reported Missing

The following list of missing, furnished by the Times, is of those who have not been accounted for up to 4:30 this morning:
J. C. GALLIHER, linotype operator, married, five children.
W. G. TUNSTALL, linotype operator, married.
FRED LLEWELLYN, linotype operator, married.
JOHN HOWARD, printer, married, one child.
GRANT MOORE, machinist, married, three children.
ED WASSON, printer, married.
ELMER FRINK, linotype operator, married.
EUGENE CARES, linotype operator, married, one child.
DON E. JOHNSON, linotype operator, married.
ERNEST JORDAN, linotype operator, married, one child.
FRANK UNDERWOOD, printer, married, one child.
CHARLES GULLIVER, compositor, married.
CARL SALADA, linotype operator.

Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon none of the list of the missing had appeared at the Times branch office and it is believed that all but possibly one or two have perished. It is considered practically certain Howard, Moore and Wasson were instantly killed, as they were near the center of the explosion and were hurled violently against the ceiling of the room.

Latest List of the Injured

The following is a list of the injured:
CHARLES E. LOVELACE, country editor, leaped from third-story window and fatally injured.
WILL LOTTA, stereotyper, burned arms and back.
G. RICHARD, cuts.
G. L. SALADA, linotype operator, cut and burned, serious.
M. WESTON, cut on shoulders.
G. F. LINK, cut on head.
MRS. J. B. ULRICH, proofreader, fell down elevator shaft, flesh torn from right leg.

CHARLES VON VELSEN, fireman, hands cut.
S. W. CRABILL, foreman composing room, severe bruises.
RANDOLPH ROSSI, linotype operator, jumped from second floor, severely injured.

WOMAN TRIES TO MURDER JURIST

Seamstress Attacks Judge Frank Baker on Streets of Chicago.

Would-be Assassin Uses Big Butcher Knife in Attempt to Slay.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—A woman, thought of her demented, attempted to assassinate Judge Frank Baker of the Appellate Court of Cook county on the street here today. The jurist escaped unhurt. The woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Burke, aged 47, a seamstress, used a knife with a five-inch blade.

Mrs. Burke was arrested. On the way to the station she screamed and struggled. The police could not learn her motive for the attack.

She rushed on Judge Baker as he stepped from his home to the street and sought to plunge a butcher knife into his heart.

STRUGGLES WITH HER.

The jurist grasped her arm and struggled with her until Policeman Sullivan arrived. Judge Baker received no injury but his assailant's hands were lacerated. Frank Baker was escorted to the bench of the Cook County Circuit Court.

TWO DEAD AND MANY HURT IN VANDERBILT CUP RACE

Harry Grant, in 120 H. P. Alco, Wins the Sixth Annual Event.

Victor Covers 278 Miles in 4:15:58 and Breaks Record.

LONG ISLAND MOTOR PARKWAY, Oct. 1.—With dead and wounded marking almost every mile of the course, the sixth Vanderbilt cup race closed today with Harry Grant, driving a 120-horsepower Alco, a winner by the narrow margin of 25 seconds. Joe Dawson, driving a Marmon, was second, 1 minute and 6 seconds ahead of John Aitken, in a National.

By his victory today Grant repeats his exploit of last year, when he captured the cup in a car of the same make.

The winner's time for the 278.08 miles of the course was 4 hours, 15 minutes and 58 seconds, or an average of 63 1/4 miles an hour, a new American record. The race was marked by fatalities second only to the Paris-Madrid race.

CALIFORNIAN HURT.

Harold Stone of Los Angeles, driver of a Columbia, suffered probably fatal injuries in a crash soon after the start. Both legs are broken and he is injured internally. At the hospital it was said his recovery was doubtful.

Charles Miller, mechanician of the Marquette-Halek car driven by Louis Chevrolet, was instantly killed in a collision with a touring car along the route.

Frederick d'Zubia, New York manager for the Pope-Hartford Company, was killed in a small smash-up while on his way down to the race.

The number of accidents, short of fatalities, ran to scores. From a sporting point of view the race was thrilling.

GREATEST RACE EVER.

There is no doubt it will go down in the annals of automobilism as the most hotly contested long distance event ever held over open country roads.

Judged by its cost in killed and maimed, however, the race was a revolting spectacle and a severe arraignment of the manner in which it was conducted.

The Abbot-Detroit, No. 56, struck a telegraph pole, throwing out driver V. Padula and Mechanician John Barber and seriously injuring both. Padula's injuries are thought to be fatal.

Stone, driving car No. 12, a Columbia, and his mechanician, Bacon, were picked up unconscious when the car turned turtle near Hicksville.

NO. 47 HIT POLE.

Car No. 47, a Mercer, ran into a telegraph pole at Meadowbrook bridge and injured the mechanician, possibly fatally.

Car No. 17, rounding a turn at Westbury, struck a spectator, Thomas Miller of College Point, L. I. Miller was seriously injured. The car swept on without stopping.

Car No. 14, the Lancia, driven by Wm. Knipper, turned over at the Massapequa Lodge and Knipper's left leg was broken. His mechanician was uninjured.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct. 1 (UPI) — The San Francisco Chronicle today said that the United States government is not planning to take any action against the newspaper.

It is a most unfortunate coincidence that the Chronicle's editorial is directed toward the management of the paper, which is concerned with the editorial board and the newspaper's financial situation.

The Chronicle's editorial is a warning to the newspaper's management to take action to prevent the newspaper from being taken over by the government.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 1 — 'Tis is a most appalling affair. I can't conceive of an incident which would actually lead anybody to make any such move. These catastrophes occur without the aid of any human being. Of course some people will be erratic enough to say that organized labor is responsible and I say that about the greatest enemy is the man who offers violence. The man who associates violence with industrial strife or efforts to secure labor's freedom is not only crank but a vicious crank.

I deplore this terrible affair and trust that those who are responsible for it will be brought to speedy justice.

Oakland's Bank Clearings on Top.

Oakland makes another record of progress and prosperity in its percentage of increase in bank clearings during the week as compared with the corresponding week in 1909. The Bradstreet report for the week ending Thursday shows Oakland's gain to be 95.7 per cent, which places it far away ahead of any financial clearing-house city in the United States. This occurs also at a time when business is dull all over the country, the Pacific Coast being no exception to the rule. The larger eastern cities—New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia—all show a loss in their respective percentages, ranging from 0.3 per cent in the case of Chicago to 18.9 per cent in New York.

On the Pacific Coast, the Puget Sound cities are ranked in the column of decrease in percentages, Seattle running behind 12.3 per cent and Tacoma 4.6 per cent. Los Angeles figures in this week's record as simply holding its own, by making no gain and suffering no loss in the comparison with last year's record. Spokane, Washington, made the slight gain of 1.9 per cent; San Francisco, 3.3 per cent; Portland, Oregon, 21.1 per cent; Salt Lake City, 5.9 per cent, the first time in many weeks since it showed an increase in its bank clearings percentages; and Sacramento closes the list with 24.2 per cent of gain to its credit.

Disciplining West Point Cadets.

The West Point Military Academy authorities are adopting extraordinary means of disciplining the cadets for the disrespect shown recently toward one of their instructors, Captain Longan, while in charge of the mess. The football game scheduled to be played today with the University of Vermont was canceled and all football practice has been discontinued. The academy faculty is placing its strong arm and veto on the sports in which the cadets delight and in the triumphs on the field of sport in which they take an especial pride, so as to reduce them to a sense of subordination. It is evident that Captain Longan is unpopular with all of the West Point classes; but that does not mean he is an incompetent as military educator. He may, in fact, be one of the most efficient instructors. It is not an uncommon experience for the most efficient and exacting instructors in our academies, colleges and universities, and, for that matter, in our common schools, to be unpopular with the student body. However, the first lesson which a military or naval cadet must learn is that of respect and subordination to his superior officer. It does not alter the case when classmates side in a body with any cadet who thinks he has a grievance against an instructor. Discipline must be enforced at the military academy at any cost, otherwise its value as a training school will be totally destroyed and its doors might as well be closed.

Cholera in Siberia.

A St. Petersburg dispatch reports the appearance of cholera in the Amur province of Siberia. That ought to be accepted as a warning to the Pacific Coast. It proves that the quarantine regulations in the Russian Empire have not been effectively administered, and that the dreaded disease has found a lodgment in the remotest eastern provinces whose natural outlet is the Pacific ocean. The Amur province is in direct communication by rail with Vladivostok and by other means of communication with Kamchatka, with both of which the shore of the Pacific ocean on this continent have direct commercial intercourse. It is essential, therefore, that we should be on close guard in the enforcement of local quarantine regulations in regard to every importation or individual coming from that quarter. The European governments have been vigilant in their efforts to arrest the progress of the contagious disease westward, and every country, except Italy, has been successful. It has been introduced into the southeastern provinces of Italy, however, through its commerce with Odessa. Henceforth we will have to keep a watchful eye on every individual and everything imported from the Asiatic ports of the Russian Empire now that the cholera epidemic has broken out in a territory commercially tributary to our western ports.

Peary as a Naval Problem.

The application of Commander Robert E. Peary, a claimant to the honor of discovering the North Pole, for an extension of his leave of absence, is puzzling the Navy Department. Peary's rank in the department is that of a civil engineer, not that of a naval commander. He has been away from the department so long on successive leaves of absence granted through the influence exerted by those who have financed his polar expeditions, that he is probably of no value to the navy now as a civil engineer, and his training at sea has not been such as to qualify him to hold the position of a naval officer. To give him rank as a naval officer will necessitate doing an injustice to regularly trained officers already in the service by passing him over their heads. Peary has all along been a gold digger to the navy and he is more so now than he ever was, for his Arctic expeditions he never lost sight of the commercial profits to be derived from them. In all probability the only rational solution to the problem which his case presents to the Navy Department is to drop him from its rolls as a civil engineer. So far as the Navy Department is concerned Peary has certainly done nothing for it entitling him to be retired with a naval officer's pension.

The multiplicity of auto accidents with fatal results must finally induce legislation not only governing the speed of such machines in actual operation on the public roadways, but the manufacture of such machines so that the rational speed limit cannot be exceeded. There is a line of safety in public road travel which is well-known. It is defined in the case of a horse vehicle by statute, why should it not be established also in the case of a road machine employed in the carrying of persons? If such a statute were put into effect in every State in the Union high speeding and the fatalities of jay riding would cease. The responsibility for high speeding and the fatal results attending the use of high speed machines driven at their full capacity rests primarily with the manufacturers of automobiles who compete with one another in the production of machines of the highest speed capacity.

The first of the winter storms struck the southern coast of the State yesterday, drenching all points south of Tehachapi. There was a time in the history of the State when the winter rains were always late in visiting the southern counties; but for many years past that section has been the first to experience their advent and this year is no exception to the rule, as the recent September storm which flitted over the northern and central counties was nothing unusual and cut no figure for either good or evil. It is now the time for the gales of the autumnal equinox to set in, and the south has received the first benefit from them. It came at a time when no damage can be done to crops, whereas great benefit should accrue from the good drenching the soil has received which enables the farmers of Southern California to start their plows going and prepare the land early for next year's crops.

The decision rendered by Judge Ellsworth in the Lake Merritt boathouse case is eminently just, for the claimant's against the city's title to the site occupied by them never had a peg to stand on. The decision furthermore clears the way for the Board of Public Works and the Park Commission to carry out their plan for the erection of a casino and otherwise improving Lakeshore Park along the line of the Twelfth-street dam and removing what has long been a public eyesore.

MOST of man's misery comes from either TOO MUCH money or else TOO LITTLE of the lucre; it's after leath that MAN'S MONEY as well as HIS REPUTATION is most prized.

EACH TRUTH that is picked up on the pathway of life is but the fresh scent of more truth to be found further along the road; TRUTH, like the TALENT when PUT TO WORK, MULTIPLIES.

FAITH is far-sighted and sure, for it sees all the FACTS amidst all the FALLACIES that are forthcoming; MAN EXPECTS THE BEST and that's why he PUTS THE BEST into his work.

PRESENT PAIN and PUNISHMENT so as to think purchases for them a PERPETUAL PARADISE in the regions of the skies; if pain to body and soul don't bring peace to you NOW it won't in the hereafter.

MORSE'S PHILOSOPHY

C. W. Morse's experience in preparing a type-written catalogue of the Atlanta prison library has impressed him with the limitations of his knowledge. He is reported as saying, "I never knew before how little I knew, how little I could do any one thing well." In the confession of ignorance lies the beginning of wisdom. But the convicted banker is unduly self-deprecating. No one understands better than he does the special branches of knowledge for which he has a reputation. He is merely out of his mental environment. So a college professor who knew all about Sanskrit or political economy would feel a sense of hopeless incapacity if called on to float a steamship merger. On the other hand, the special training of which the banker confesses his lack would probably have kept the world in ignorance of his ability in finance. It is by a general grasp of principles more than by a knowledge of minor details that business success is won. Yet Mr. Morse's prison philosophy is interesting as a revealing his discovery that there are other fields of human interest besides "company promotion or bank-manipulation." Not all the art of life is comprised in money-making, and there are men on small salaries no doubt there were clerk in his employ in the time of his prosperity who have found a surer clue to happiness than he possessed. His prison term has had its compensations in giving him a clearer perception of social values. —New York World.

The twenty-second annual convention of the United American Hebrew Congregations will be held in New York next January, and elaborate preparations are already being made for the entertainment of the delegates by a committee of one hundred. About three hundred delegates will be present, representing all the reformed congregations in the United States, and some of the most prominent clergymen and laymen connected with these will take part in discussing matters pertaining to American Jewry.

Figures From Past

Among recent deaths that recall a romantic past are those of an old whaling skipper, Capt. C. A. Howell, who had made seven voyages around the world, doubling the Cape eleven times and the Horn thirteen; a Virginia college professor, W. J. L. Millar, who had been Julius Brutus Booth's manager; a professional ball player of the early days, Col. M. E. Urell, who belonged to the Olympics and Nationals in the sixties, and a railroad employee who had been with the Burlington for fifty-five years.

But the list is richest in names with war associations. In this city at the age of 89 died R. F. Manierre, who was provost marshal during the draft and whose Broadway office was burned during the ensuing riots. At Hartford died John J. Cutler, a former New York fireman who was chief of police in Andersonville prison. Others who have passed away are W. B. Glasby, who served as a secret service bodyguard for Lincoln, and Alexander M. Orr, who was one of the guards of honor at his castle, in Albany; J. D. Voltz, a war-time telegraph operator, who sent to President Lincoln from Rome, Ga., the message outlining General Sherman's plan for the march to the sea; James R. Cox, Seward's law partner; W. A. Walker, who was an attorney in the Alabama claims case, and Col. J. C. Phillips, who under orders from General Magruder burned the town of Hampton, Va. At Indianapolis died "Mother" Stegert, who became a nurse in a Confederate hospital while acting as a Union spy.

These were minor figures on a great stage whose lives serve to vivify the war to the new generations which is about to celebrate its semi-centennial anniversaries. —New York World.

Judge Melvin's

As far as any political event may be forecast it is safe to assert that Supreme Justice Henry A. Melvin will be elected to succeed himself on the tribunal which he has added strength and admitted dignity. This prospect should be accepted by the people of California as a matter of congratulation, for Justice Melvin in his long career as a trial judge and then as member of the court of last resort has merited popular commendation and support.

By common consent the people of the State attach a primary importance to the position of Supreme Justice. In the affairs of State, in matters affecting individual interest as well as in questions of great public policy the Supreme Court of California is the final source of authority and decision. Since Justice Melvin has been a Supreme Justice he has been scrupulously solicitous in protecting the public welfare and in fixing individual rights and responsibilities equitably.

He has been broad and fair in his interpretation of the law. He has won the highest esteem of those whose necessities have forced them before the court. His deep knowledge of the law has been of great service to his associates on the bench. He has exercised a positive influence in a field where mental and moral obligations are as serious as they can be in the government of the State.

Public spirited citizens, who have concerned themselves to make sure the emphatic re-election of Judge Melvin, report that in every part of California, in the rural and isolated communities as well as in the large centers of population he is a popular favorite. For many years he has been in the public service in judicial positions of trust and responsibility and he is known better, perhaps, than any other public man in California.

WORLD OF

Some time ago a Boston physician figured out that the United States would be a nation of lunatics in about ten years, if memory serves us. Dismayed by the prophecy, we found comfort in immigration, but alas, we did not reckon with old world lunacy experts.

There is no hope, it seems, in the direction of Europe. Dr. Forbes Winslow, a specialist of international reputation, declares in a book that the human race is degenerating, going insane. "A terrible but real curse is in store, and an insane world looks forward to me with certainty in the not distant future." However, we are not told how decades of grace are left to us.

Swimming seems to be the sport at which women do best. We have no women Westerns, and the skirt wearers are said, even the best of them, to play but a medium game at tennis. In the realm of intellectual pastimes, a woman who can really play a tolerable game of chess is as rare as a lady pugilist in little circles.

But during the past few weeks there have been numerous accounts of the feats of women swimmers. One young lady took a medal by swimming the Seventeen miles to Coney Island, a journey that most men, even the hale and hearty, prefer to travel by boat. Then we are readily put in mind of the graceful lady divers. Diving Venuses indeed are so common with us now that

The rainfall has begun early this season, greatly to the inconvenience of the farmers and fruit growers, and it is anticipated for any length of time great damage is likely to occur. The greatest danger is with the grapes, for the reason that there is little if any other variety of fruit unharmed. Up to the present time the rainfall for the season has been seventeen and one-half inches of an inch.

He has been subjected to indignities and thrashed, but like the villain, he still pursued her. As a last resort, he was arrested on a warrant charging insanity and brought before Judge Ellsworth and the lunacy commission.

Thomas F. Conway for His Running Mate.

TAMMANY SATISFIED WITH COMPLETE TICKET

Platform Adopted Setting Forth Party Principles; "New Nationalism" Denounced

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 1.—John
A. Dix was nominated for governor
by the Democratic state convention
yesterday, and Thomas F. Conway was named for lieutenant governor
after a heated battle over the convention floor. The platform was adopted setting forth the party principles and denouncing the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, the "new nationalism" and favoring an amendment to the federal constitution to permit the position
by Congress of an income tax.

SELECTION A COMPROMISE

Dix's selection as the party standard bearer was in the nature of a compromise. Dix himself nearly defeated the plans of the party leaders
at the last moment when he declared positively that he would not accept the nomination. Every influence was brought to bear upon the unwilling candidate and he finally yielded. This followed a conference with a committee consisting of National Democratic chairman, John T. Mack and John E. McConkey, the Brooklyn leader. Dix has the hearty endorsement of Tammany hall and Charles E. Murphy expressed himself
as well pleased with the selection.

COMPLETE TICKET

Following is the complete ticket
put in the field by the convention:
Governor—JOHN A. DIX, Washington.
Lieutenant Governor—THOMAS F.
CONWAY, Clinton.
Secretary of State—EDWARD MA-
ZANSKY, Kings.
Comptroller—WILLIAM M.
SCHMIDT, New York.
Attorney General—THOMAS CAR-
DOOLY, Yates.
State Treasurer—JOHN J. KEN-NEDY, Erie.
State Engineer and Surveyor—
JOHN A. BENZEL, New York.
Justices of the Court of Appeals—
IRVING C. AXEL (Republican),
Onondaga, and FREDERICK COHEN
(Democrat), Chemung.
All names following the head of the ticket were rushed through by acclamation.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

The platform adopted by the convention contains the following declaration:
"The Democratic party of New York, in convention assembled,
pledges itself anew to the old nationalism embodied in the constitution of the United States and to the support in every way of the independent and continued existence of each of the three separate and distinct branches of the federal government, and preserving all from attack and usurpation and each from any possibility of encroachment by the others, and in particular we condemn all attacks on the supreme Court of the United States.
We are unalterably opposed to any usurpation by the federal government of the rights of the states.
We denounce the Republican party in the nation for its gross
and willful betrayal of the trust reposed in it by the people, and point out that the declared and expressed promise to revise the tariff downward, upon which the Republicans obtained office, has been willfully disregarded and ignored.
The Payne-Aldrich tariff law,
pronounced by President Taft to be the best tariff that the Republican party ever passed, was a flagrant breach of faith by the Republican party. The bill even increased the exactness of former Republican tariff laws, and has placed great additional burdens
on the shoulders of the average
man.
We charge the Republican party both in nation and in state
with gross extravagance in public expenditures, with creating many unnecessary offices, and adding to the public payrolls
thousands of useless officials.
We pledge ourselves to retrenchment and reform, and to the economical administration of public affairs.
We favor an amendment to the federal constitution to permit the imposition by Congress of an income tax.
We recommend the extension
and development of the public post, so as to increase the weight
and size of parcels which may be carried by public carriers.
The profit of public lands and water power sites should be preserved to the people at large
and as the value of these natural resources and returns from them increase, which from a development or otherwise, the people should benefit in the largest possible measure consistent with the honest enterprise of the present generation.
We condemn the inaction of the Republican administration of the forest reserve. We demand strict and impartial enforcement of the forest laws, including immediate abolition of unlawful special privileges in lands declared by the law to be used for benefit of all the people.
The platform concludes with a denunciation of the "new nationalism," which is described as
"overshadowed by a disregard
of the people's right to choose
members of political committees
and nominate candidates for election office."
We favor the popular election
of United States senators.

DINKELSPIEL AND HUMOR AT ORPHEUM

BERNARD A. REINOLD as Dietrich Dinkelspiel at Oakland Orpheum.

Dinkelspiel is coming. Have you met Dinkelspiel?

There are millions who have and the probabilities are that if you have never looked into his eyes you have at least read some of the bright bits of German philosophy that Dinkelspiel has been circling forth for a number of years in vi-
rious newspapers of the land.
Mr. Dinkelspiel will make his how to you in person at the Oakland Orpheum
Sunday afternoon. The big, jolly German has traveled all the way across the continent to shake hands with the Oakland folk, who want to meet a real, lively warm-hearted philosophy of the Teutonic
brand. All the way across the continent
Mr. Dinkelspiel has been greeted by admiring thousands. He has taken in his philosophy, enjoyed his wit and been delighted with the spirit that makes up
the dramatic bit in which Mr. Dinkelspiel appears.
In other days, Mr. Dooley used to be a national figure and now Mr. Dinkelspiel has taken Mr. Dooley's place as a national character, and we have German wit instead of Irish as the foundation of the Dinkelspiel brand.

HOBART'S CREATION

George V. Hobart created Mr. Dinkelspiel. He drew a character that is homely, but delightful. Originally Dinkelspiel was used exclusively for newspapers,
but by and by Hobart decided to put him on the stage, and now Dinkelspiel
has become one of the best-known figures
in the gallery of American stage characters.
There will be a Christmas tinge to the drama in which Dinkelspiel will appear at the Oakland Orpheum on Sunday. It is a little early for Yuletide celebration, but that will not hinder anyone from taking joy in the spirit that Dinkelspiel
spreads in the sketch "Dinkelspiel's Christmas."

The vaudeville show of which Dinkelspiel
is the principal figure includes a lot of big star acts.
Harry Larson and Anita Laurence will make their appearance in a new musical comedy bit called "The Piano Store."

Waterbury Brothers and Tenny, favorite musical comedians, will be newcomers.

A striking act called "Looping the Bumps" will be given by Lane and O'Donnell, and who are said to take their lives in their hands at every performance.

Ramesses, the magician, will be a feature of the show, with other features.

ATHLETIC CLUB PLANS SAN LEANDRO DANCE

place in the Masonic Temple on October 8.
Preparations for the decorations of the hall have already been started and it is the opinion of all the members that they have seen the program that it is to be the finest affair that they have ever attempted. The committee of arrangements are as follows: Charles Smith, J.

J. J. Hart, O. Iverson, E. Berchmann and

DON'T BE BALD

Almost Any One May Secure a Splendid Growth of Hair.

You can easily find out for yourself
if your hair needs nourishment. If it is thinning, falling out, itching, dry, harsh and brittle, or splitting at the ends. You simply have to pull a hair from the top of your head and closely examine its roots. If the bulb is plump and rosy it is all right.
If it is thin and shrunken your hair is diseased and needs nourishment.
We have a remedy for hair troubles
that cannot be surpassed. It has a record of growing hair and curing baldness
in 98 out of 100 cases where used according to directions. It is called "Don't Be Bald." It will even grow hair on bald heads if the scalp is not itched and shiny. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be.
We have put our claims to an actual test.
We are so sure that "Don't Be Bald" hair
Tonic will completely eradicate dandruff,
prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and grow hair, stop falling hair and grow
new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid for "Don't Be Bald" hair Tonic in every instance where it does not do as we claim or fails to give entire satisfaction
to the user.
"Don't Be Bald" hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is perfumed with a pleasant odor, and does not grease or gum the hair. We have it in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00.
We urge you to try "Don't Be Bald" hair Tonic on our recommendation and with our guarantee back of it. You certainly take no risk. Remember you can obtain "Don't Be Bald" hair Tonic in Oakland at our store, Owl Drug Company, Inc., Tenth and Washington, Thirtieth and Broadway, Sixteenth and San Pablo.

OAKLAND'S AID TO SAN FRANCISCO FAIR

Business Men of This City Give Project Big Boost at Meeting Held Yesterday; Benefit to East Side
of Bay Pointed Out

"As soon as we can effect a permanent organization we will all begin to hustle, and if everyone
works as hard as we do here, there will be little doubt of the success of the fair."—H. C. Capwell.

"That the Panama-Pacific Exposition should be held in San Francisco is a matter of the greatest importance to every citizen of California."—Frank K. Mott.

"That the east side of San Francisco bay will be vastly benefited
by the exposition is evident and needs no explanation. We of Oakland and Alameda and Berkeley
and other smaller cities and towns
have things to show these thousands of visitors."—Wickham Havens.

Declaring their unreserved enthusiasm
in the project and their firm determination to aid individually and collectively,
the business men of Oakland yesterday
assured San Francisco that everything
in their power would be done to aid San Francisco in its efforts to secure the Panama-Pacific Exposition.
The meeting was held in the directors'
room of the Oakland Bank of Savings
and was attended by the most influential merchants and most representative men of the community. Plans were laid for a systematic campaign and Oakland's aid
to San Francisco pledged.

COMMITTEE NAMED

The following committee was appointed
to take charge of matters:
W. W. Garthwaite, J. F. Carleton,
Wickham Havens, Arthur H. Bred, Victor H. Metcalf, Frank K. Mott, H. C.
Capwell, C. J. Heeseman and Frank M.
Smith. All are widely known as business men of Oakland and San Francisco urged the need of an auxiliary body in Oakland working in conjunction with San Francisco's main committee. He pointed out the common interests of the two cities and the need for quick action. He was indicated by J. W. Eccleson, who acted as temporary chairman.

SUPPORT PLEDGED

Hellman's speech was enthusiastically received and when he had finished the unreserved support of every person present was promised San Francisco.
The committee appointed will meet Tuesday to plan further for its work and a large committee of representative men
from all sections of the county will be named.
The support of Frank M. Smith was assured for the project. Although he is in Oakland at the present time, he has been named as one of the Alameda county committee.
"One who and one interest" was the keynote of the meeting throughout. From all sides came individual promises to aid
in securing the exposition and in making it a success after Congress has given its vote to San Francisco.

EAST SIDE TO BENEFIT

Wickham Havens declared it was evident that the east side of the bay would be vastly benefited by the big fair and further said that "we of Oakland, Alameda
and Berkeley and other smaller cities and towns have things to show the thousands of visitors to the fair which they cannot find in other parts of the United States."
"It is a matter of the greatest importance to every citizen of California
that the Panama-Pacific Exposition
should be held in San Francisco," said Mayor Mott, "and we who live on the east side of the bay will do everything possible to secure it."

FAIR MEANS NEW ERA

Mayor Frank K. Mott, who took an active part in the committee meeting,
spoke of the broad interests of Oakland associated with San Francisco.
"That the great Panama-Pacific Exposition should be held in San Francisco is a matter of the greatest importance to every citizen of California or for that matter of the Pacific Coast and the people of San Francisco may be sure that we who live on the east side of the bay will do all that it is possible for us to do to secure for our big sister city of the Golden Gate the honor of holding the exposition
and that it will be the most successful
affair of the kind ever held in America."

BAY INTERESTS COMMON

"The broader interests of the people
of Oakland are so closely allied to those of San Francisco that although we may have many lesser things to haggle about between us there can be no question of our enthusiasm and our desire to aid in the bringing to San Francisco of the big fair of 1915. What is good for San Francisco is good for Oakland, and vice versa, and for the whole Pacific Coast, so far as the benefit to be derived from the exposition is concerned."
"The exposition will bring to our state
and to our metropolis hundreds of thousands of people from all parts of the world, who will see for the first time the vast seaboard empire which is named on the maps they have seen. California, and in good California, in San Francisco or Oakland or elsewhere, and will become residents of our state, and will lend their capital and their brains and energy to the betterment and advancement of the state."

IMMEDIATE ADVANTAGES

"So far as the immediate advantages of the exposition are concerned, the money that is left over by the casual tourist and the citizen, the fair in Oakland will probably benefit as much as the exposition as will San Francisco, and the district on the western side of the bay.
"From every point of view one may take of the matter, the people of the eastern side of the bay should be as keenly interested in the holding of the exposition in San Francisco and the wide benefit of the fair as any one else of the Pacific Coast, partly because Oakland and Berkeley and Alameda will be benefited immediately by the coming to the Golden Gate of such a vast number of people,
but chiefly because the east side of the

MAYOR'S LETTER IS BIG SURPRISE TO COUNCIL

Plan to Combine the City and County Government Meets
With Approval

SUBJECT WILL BE TAKEN UP SOON

Fact That Tax Rate Will Be Reduced Wins Many Toward
the Project

BERKELEY, Oct. 1.—Greater interest is being taken in the communication sent the city council yesterday
by Mayor Hodghead than in any action of the city's executive since he has taken office. While the members of the city council, to whom the communication came as a surprise, all say they favor city and county government combined, but refuse to go deeper into the subject at present,
saying they wish to study it, but that it will be taken up by the council as a whole in the near future.

The fact that appeals the strongest to their minds, providing that the mayor's plan worked out. The councilmen and the mayor feel that there will be little opposition to the plan
and that the legislature can easily be prevailed upon to pass the laws necessary to make the change. The mayor's communication in full follows:

MAYOR'S LETTER

To the Council of the City of Berkeley: The result of the recent election held for the purpose of annexing Berkeley to Oakland indicates very clearly that a large majority of the people are in favor of maintaining the political integrity of Berkeley, or at least,
adverse to the form of union proposed, which would reduce to no measure whatever of local autonomy. The election also discloses the fact that many citizens are desirous of making such change in the character of the government as will to some degree relieve the general burden of taxation. Both of these objects should be attained if possible.

The tax rate which now prevails in Berkeley for municipal purposes alone is as low as may reasonably be expected. Inasmuch as it is considerably lower than the rate in Oakland for similar purposes, simply annexation
would increase rather than reduce the burden. The tax can only be lowered by some form of consolidation of city and county government. It may be that the time will come when there will be some greater federation of cities about the bay for the joint control of municipal necessities in which there is a common interest, to accomplish this result.

WILL NOT GIVE UP

The various cities will not readily yield up their separate identities to become relatively unimportant parts of a greater whole. They are not likely to consent to this except upon some form of borough government,
which will have to be worked out
after the enactment of proper legislation, and the adoption of necessary constitutional amendments. In the meantime the form of Berkeley's government should be settled. If we are to maintain a separate existence
we should be permitted to do so without having to resist repeated efforts for its absorption.
There can be no doubt that the most economical and efficient form of government that could be maintained under the conditions here, would be the city and county of Berkeley. Inasmuch as that form would not only result in the lowest rate of taxes, but would preserve the name and identity and institutions of the city, both desired objects would then be attained.

PRISHING NEED

I am of the opinion that until
the question of the greater federation of cities becomes a pressing
one, the wisest course for the people of Berkeley to pursue would be to request the legislature to enact such laws and substitute such amendments to the constitution as would permit us to form the city and county of Berkeley. This to my mind
would be, under the circumstances, a responsible request,
and being the university city,
in which every citizen of the state
has a direct interest, I believe it would readily receive the approval of the people.
I invite the attention of the council and the civic bodies of all interested citizens to the consideration of this question.
BEVERLY HODGHEAD,
Mayor.

SEMINOLE CLUB TO GIVE FIRST DANCE

The first dance of a series of dances
to be given by the Seminole Club for the coming season will be given Friday evening, Oct. 14, in Maple Hall.

The club has many dances and social evenings last season which were very enjoyable and well attended.

Over three hundred invitations have been sent out to the many friends of the club members on both sides of the bay.

Among the clubs to be present on the night of the first dance will be the La Allegros, Spinks, California Grays, and many other clubs of San Francisco.

The affair will be in charge of the entertainment committee, which includes
Henry Chaudus, C. A. Lucking and Ray Reed.

Big Road Show Due Tomorrow

The Cream of the Vaudeville Acts on the Sullivan-Considine Circuit Opens
Tomorrow at the Bell. A Great Show Promised.

All vaudeville attendants await with pleasure the opening performance tomorrow at the Bell Theater, when the very popular Road Show gives its first performance. Mr. Considine has personally given his attention to the various acts comprising this show and that it will be one of the best bills ever presented in Oakland is certain. The personnel of the program is as follows: Miss Jenny's trained Angora cats and performing monkeys; the whirlwind Saad Dahduk troupe of desert wonders; vaudeville's
topnotch male quartette, Free Setters
Four; the terpsichorean novelty, by the Grazers; ingenious laugh-makers, Williams and Weston; the Venetian Street Singers, Europe's well-known vocal organization.
It will be a great week for vaudeville
and a great week for the Bell theater patrons, and there will be no sales in prices.

Finish Business.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The third annual joint meeting of the National Association of Electrical Engineers and the Association of Railway Electric Supply Manufacturers closed yesterday with the election of officers and the selection of Chicago as the meeting place in November, 1911, and Washington, D. C., for the semi-annual meeting in June, 1912.
A. C. Moore of Chicago was elected president of the supply manufacturers.
J. R. Sloan of Allentown, Pa., was elected president of the electrical engineers.

CARPENTERS FINISH

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 1.—The international convention of Carpenters and Joiners came to a close last night.
The convention turned down the resolution offered by the Chicago and Milwaukee delegation to the effect that "so-ciation is the salvation of the laboring
man."
The carpenters went on record favoring giving an industrial course to young men in the public schools and voted to establish a bureau for sick and infirm
members of the union.

FIRE DESTROYS RAILROAD SHOPS

Blaze Starting From Unknown
Cause Results in Damage
Estimated at $350,000.

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 1.—The Southern Pacific shops here were totally destroyed by fire at 11 o'clock tonight. The loss is estimated at $350,000. The fire was the second within an hour and the cause of neither is known. Both originated in the blacksmith section, the second blaze
spreading to machine shops and finally to the round house. All of the buildings collapsed. In addition to much valuable machinery there were ten locomotives, eighteen oil tenders and four baggage cars destroyed.
Immediately across the yards were tanks holding 200,000 barrels of fuel oil which were unharmed. The destruction would have doomed the entire city
because of an artery a few feet away
which would have carried the burning oil
through many sections.
The destruction of the shops takes from Tucson her chief industry and is a serious blow. Four hundred men are thrown out of work. Superintendent Whalen is not prepared to say whether
the shops will be rebuilt here or not.
Their efforts to secure higher wages were adopted.

UNDERTAKERS NAME CITY

TRENTON, Oct. 1.—Atlantic City, N. J., was chosen to entertain the next convention of the National Funeral Directors Association at its final session here yesterday.
Charles A. Miller of Cincinnati was elected president and William Cockey of Walla Walla, Wash., vice-president.

--- A South Sea Island Frozen Dessert

Here is one of the most interesting desserts we ever arranged for our patrons. It is a South Sea Island combination, being made from BANANAS FROM TAHITI
VANILLA FROM SUMATRA
PINEAPPLES FROM HAWAIIAN ISLANDS
As far as we know it is the only dessert of the kind that was ever made in the United States.
Of course the flavors have been combined with cream and frozen in the usual manner. For instance, we scraped and crushed the bananas and pineapple and used only the juice of the pineapples. The Vanilla beans are put through a special process and the extract obtained is combined with cream, making the most delicious vanilla ice cream
you ever tasted.
When completed the brick is as follows:
A layer of Tahiti Banana Ice Cream.
A layer of Hawaiian Pineapple Water Ice.
A layer of Sumatra Vanilla Ice Cream.
We will not make this dessert again for a long time, so take advantage of our opportunity. It is one of the most costly Sunday
Specials we ever offered to our patrons.
50 cents for a quart brick if you call and carry it home.
80 cents for a quart brick if we deliver it to your home.

AMATEUR ATHLETICS

ORCHESTRA WILL BE FEATURE OF SCHOOL

Students In Upper Piedmont to Organize Musical Society for Marching and Singing.

One of the novel features in the Upper Piedmont school is the piano, by which the pupils march and sing. The instrument will be replaced by an orchestra, composed of talented children of the school, which will be formed this term under the direction of Miss Nellie L. Liss. The staff of teachers of the Upper Piedmont school has been increased in proportion to the pupils, the number 100. There are seven teachers, including the principal, Miss Clara Crumpton, formerly one of the members of the faculty of the San Francisco Normal school. They are Miss L. Liss, Miss Florence Liss, Miss Alice Miller, Miss Nellie Driscoll, Miss Dorothy Solomons, Miss Helen Sommer and Miss Clara Crumpton.

An innovation in the school is the choral work which is given ten minutes at the noon hour in the hall of the school.

Many of the specimens of drawings are placed on one side of the hall together with the names of the successful artists and those who have won the first place in their studies for the month.

The children whose names appear on the roll of honor for September are: John Brinkerhoff, Josie Parker, Amy, Lou, Margaret Leach, Alvina, Jeffery, Charles Strother, Carlton, Oswald, Ralph N. Holston, Kenneth, Robert, and Alvin, Schott and Elizabeth Chambers.

Original Stories By Young Authors

SLEEPY HOLLOW.

(By ALLISON PARRY, aged 15)

The characters of this story are based on the schoolmaster, Katrina Van Tass, the heroine, Hattie Van Tass, and Abraham, or Brown Bones, as he was called. Brown Bones was a school rival and a very good one. The scene of this story is laid in Sleepy Hollow, a little Dutch settlement along the shore of the broad Hudson river, which was near by was the center of the settlement.

The marriage and costumes of these people were very strange. They wore all very superstitious, believing all sorts of fables and goblins, but their favorite legend was the headless horseman. This horseman was a Hessian, who had fought in the revolutionary war and in some senseless battle had lost his head.

In this story Katrina tried to win Katrina's heart out was frightened away by Brown Bones who afterward married Katrina.

UNIT FOR WORK IN ATHLETICS SOUGHT

The High School Heads May Decide to Give Students Credits for Sports.

The athletes of the high schools of Oakland are looking forward to the decision that they have been trying to reach for some time regarding the granting of a unit for four years of systems to work in athletics. The principals of the three high schools, P. M. High, the Manual Training and Commercial High school, C. E. Hayes of the Oakland High school and T. S. Foster of the John C. Fremont High school are endeavoring to settle the matter for the athletes.

It is a matter of the physical development of the girls and boys is deemed an essential, but the important issue is the kind of athletes that shall be taught and credited.

According to a statement made by one of the principals, there is some objection to giving the girls pay because of basketball in public, once it is not thought that the female athletes should come with the girls of the various schools of the city. They will meet in play among themselves and will seek to obtain the credit out of the recreation. The principal of the Oakland High school is of the opinion that the girls will agree to give the unit for all athletes.

At an early date of the year, the decision of the heads of the high schools who are giving the subject of outdoor sports a serious thought.

Every woman's heart thrills at the cooling and gratifying of a baby, and motherhood is her highest and purest joy. Yet the suffering incident to this great consummation of her life's desire, robs the anticipation of some of its sweetness. Most of this can be avoided by the use of Mother's Own Brand. It keeps the mother comfortable during all the term. Mother's Own Brand keeps the breasts, breasts in good condition, and brings the physical condition. The regular use of

THE MEDDLER

MRS. SAMUEL HAIGHT, formerly Miss Rosetta Rich, whose marriage a few months ago was a local event. —Young, Photo.

MRS. W. E. SHARON, one of the best known matrons among the socially prominent of this city. —Webster, Photo.

THE early October days will see most people back in town, and the social season fairly well begun. Arrangements are being made for the dances of the winter, that are to be given on this side of the bay, and invitations were sent out last week for the Junior Assembly. The "B Club" will also have a series of dances — its guests including members a little older than those represented in the Junior Assembly.

The Friday assemblies will not be continued this year, mainly for want of a leader. Mr. Willard Barton has taken the initiative for the past two seasons, and has carried the dances both winters to a successful conclusion. But the arrangement of the many details takes a great deal of time, and Mr. Barton, who is very busy, does not feel able this year to again assume the responsibility.

So it appears likely that there will be no dances for the younger matrons this year. Many of the girls are to be out of town this season also, some of them in the East, some of them abroad, and others are planning to spend a great deal of time across the bay.

So there will probably be rather the "Friday Nights" nor the "Friday Assemblies" this season. But for all that the winter months give promise of many social activities. The art of entertaining is a lesson in itself, and American hostesses are learning the lesson in the most approved fashion. The most delightful affairs are the informal ones—where one meets a few congenial friends, asked in for luncheon or bridge. No social gathering is ever a dull one now. Sometimes a hostess entertains her friends at some delightful "kitch"—and after luncheon, the busy guests go their different ways. Sometimes it is a "bridge luncheon," and then there are very few courses—but they must be delightfully planned and promptly served, and the luncheon is followed by a bridge game of unusual interest. Dinners of few well chosen courses are also methods of entertaining one's friends, and the informal dinner is followed by bridge or by the theater.

Every bridge player belongs to some card club, and it comes her turn to entertain the members, and she must make it a point of honor to attend the meetings whenever she can. For nothing is more distressing to a hostess than to have members excusing themselves from the afternoon's meeting. She must get a substitute in very short order, and sometimes it has to be a poor player, who is a great trial to the other players. Many of the leading bridge clubs have a substitute list, made up of good players, who like to play at intervals, but do not care to be bound down by club rules.

Among the leading bridge clubs on this side of the bay are the Whetlock, the Cosmos Club, the Thursday and the Monday Afternoon Club. Personnel of the clubs varies during the same time.

The Whetlock Club is the oldest club in the city, having taken from Kate Whetlock, who many seasons ago came to Oakland and taught leading women here how to play whist. Among its prominent members have been Mrs. Remi Chastot, Mrs. John Yale, Mrs. Gordon Sloop and Mrs. T. C. Coogan.

The Cosmos Club was organized by the late Mrs. F. M. Smith, and for several years its president was Mrs. Sather. Mrs. Edward Walsh is the president this year, and the first meeting of the season is to be held at her Linda Vista home. Among the good players in the Cosmos Club are Mrs. Thomas O'Neill, Mrs. T. C. Coogan, Mrs. A. A. Moore, Mrs. E. A. Hook, Mrs. E. H. Kitzinger, Mrs. Nelson Adams, Mrs. Will Meek, Mrs. Larry Meek, Mrs. Egbert Stone, Mrs. R. R. Burnham, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Mrs. Bowles, Miss McNear, Mrs. T. L. Barker.

Since the organization of the Thursday Club Mrs. William H. Creed has been its president, and she entertains the club at the opening meeting, usually at a very delightful affair. There are some very good bridge players in the Thursday Club, and among them are Mrs. J. H. Todd, Mrs. James Keena, Mrs. Charles Hook, Mrs. George E. Whitney, Mrs. Edgar Stone, Mrs. J. R. Seapham.

The Monday Afternoon Club is composed of young matrons, many of whom live in the Lakeside District. The president of the club this season is Mrs. Charles Houghton and Mrs. James Allen was the hostess this week at the first meeting of the year. The Monday Club includes in its membership some of the best players on this side of the bay, among them Mrs. Charles Houghton, Mrs. M. W. Fales, Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Frank L. Brown, Mrs. Lillian Lewis, Mrs. Minor Goodall, Mrs. Robert Knight, Miss Elmer Parrier.

There are many minor bridge clubs, some of them including the young girls and young matrons who play a very good game of bridge, and among these smaller clubs one finds such excellent players as Mrs. Paul Dinsmore, Mrs. William Thornton White, Mrs. Josephine Johnson, Miss Ruth and Miss Rose Koles, Mrs. Hiram L. H. Miss Edith Beck, Miss Elise E. Hilling, Miss Christine English, Miss Anita Thompson, Mrs. George Hammer, Mrs. Leslie Ross, Mrs. Frederick Snowden, Miss Jessie Craig, Mrs. Carmen Sutton, Miss May Coogan, Miss Mollie Maries, Mrs. Frank Irving, Mrs. Murray Orrick, Mrs. Irving Burrill, Mrs. William Childs.

With so many good players, bridge is fair to hold its own this season as one of the leading social activities, and good players everywhere now know how to play "action bridge," but it has not yet been adopted by any of the leading clubs.

MRS. JOSEPH KNOWLAND, CHARMING HOSTESS.

Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland was one of the hostesses of the week. Mrs. Knowland was last year the hostess of Southern bridge, coming from a well-known family of Virginia. Since her arrival in California she has made many friends here, and is a popular young matron in social circles about the bay.

Mrs. Knowland's guest of honor was her brother, Mrs. Florence E. West, who is here from Virginia, and the reception planned in her honor was one of the largest and most interesting of the season.

The home of the Knowlands showed unusually fine decorations, for superb dahlias were the basis of the brilliant color scheme. They are wonderfully effective, and they made the home specially attractive, the lovely color tones making a background full of charm for "a picture of fair women."

Mrs. Knowland is most attractive, with that magnetic charm of manner which is so often characteristic of women of the South. They are very gracious, very sympathetic, and it must be conceded that Californians and Southerners lead the way along lines of delightful hospitality. Mrs. Knowland is very popular here, and she is also one of the best-liked young matrons in the official set at Washington. So her reception was along lines of unusual interest, and was one of the largest and for many reasons one of the most notable of the season. Mrs. Knowland's receiving party included her mother, Mrs. Florence West, Mrs. J. C. Needham, wife of Congressman Needham of Modesto; Mrs. John E. Connors, Mrs. Randolph Weinman and Mrs. Everett J. Brown.

Elaborate refreshments were served during the afternoon, and there was a large attendance of guests from the cities around the bay.

The gowns worn at the reception were the most artistic seen here this season. They all represented the newest effects of the winter, and each costume was a picture, very perfectly planned.

Mrs. Knowland's gown was an artistic creation of white satin, with an overdress of ecru lace, the gown trimmed with touches of blue velvet, with Parisian effect.

Mrs. West wore a costume of pale lavender tones, the gown of lavender, beautifully hand embroidered in violet tones.

Mrs. John F. Connors wore a handsome gown of pink satin, with an overdress of lace, in pale cream-colored tones. The handsome costume was set off with a corsage bouquet of orchids, in pale pink and lavender shades.

Mrs. Everett Brown was a charming study in lavender; the lingerie gown was beautifully hand embroidered, and the dainty study was completed by lavender orchids.

The reception was along most successful lines, and the guests of the hostess enjoyed a delightful and extremely interesting afternoon.

MISS VAN SICKLEN HOSTESS AT A TEA.

Miss Hilda Van Sicken was also the hostess this week at an elaborate tea given at her home in Alameda. The Van Sicken represents one of the pioneer families on this side of the bay, and their home is one of the most prominent in Alameda.

The Van Sicken are also identified with social life in San Francisco, so their guest lists always include many people of social prominence from across the bay.

Miss Van Sicken was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. Fritz Van Sicken and a large receiving party.

WORKING TO HELP THE POOR.

Another interesting reception was that planned by Mrs. Thomas Hogan, who has for some years now been president of the Providence Hospital Auxiliary, which has done good work in the years of its existence. Its aim has been to supplement wherever possible, the charitable efforts of the sisters of the hospital, and among the many achievements of the association has been the establishment of a permanent bed for the sick poor.

Mrs. Hogan began the work of the year with the informal reception to the members of the association. Her home was an artistic study in decorations, with brilliant canas adding effective touches to a fine color study in floral arrangements.

Mrs. Hogan wore a very handsome gown of gray crepe de chine, beautifully trimmed in lace, and she was assisted in receiving the guests of the afternoon by the executive officers of the association.

Among the guests of the afternoon were the Mother Superior of Providence Hospital and Sister Alphonsa, at the head of the nurses' department and surgical department of the hospital.

Many plans are being considered to render more effective the good work of the Providence Auxiliary, which is an association rapidly pushing into prominence as a most helpful factor in intelligent, good work along lines of sympathetic helpfulness.

CLAREMONT CLUB TO HOLD AN EXHIBITION.

It is said the Claremont Country Club is planning to hold an exhibition of pictures painted by artists about the bay. It is the intention of the club to purchase a picture each year, and one is glad to know that the picture will be the production of a California artist. If this were done the Claremont Club would in time show a splendid collection of California works of art.

It may be said for our side of the bay that many distinguished artists have chosen to make their homes in our midst. There is William Keith, whose pictures bring as much as $1000 a piece in New York, and who is never able to fill all the orders which find their way to his studio. Richard Partington's marine views are superb, and his portraits show wonderful color tones. His portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Havens are especially fine examples of his work.

Miss Margaret C. Herriek is one of the best portrait painters on the Coast, and her work never fails to call out many expressions of appreciation when it appears in the exhibitions across the bay.

Mrs. Mary Herriek Ross interprets landscapes in beautiful color tones, and her studies of trees are exceedingly fine.

M. D. Gremko is an artist sure to find his way to the heights, for he has wonderful genius. He works in a quiet way in that unostentatious fashion which marks the man of merit everywhere. But in his studio are some superb canvases, and one hears that a foreign potentate passing through San Francisco paid Mr. Gremko $3000 for one of his pictures. Some famous canvases represent San Francisco after the fire; there are many fine studies of California mountain scenery, and there are rare pictures of mission days. Mr. Gremko is now at work on a most elaborate picture, a scene in a market place, which bids fair to be a masterpiece. He is an artist of whom California will be very proud in the future.

Martinez came over here after the great fire and established his studio in the Piedmont hills, where he is working steadily, and achieving artistic results, wonderfully well worth while.

Carl Borg, the Swedish artist who has been attracting so much attention in artistic circles around the bay, left last week for the East and Europe. He is going to Algiers, and later he will go to Spain, and in picturesque Granada he will find wonderful material for his paintings.

This year Mr. Borg has finished two exceedingly fine portraits. One of the late Senator George Hearst has been placed in the Mining Memorial Building at Berkeley, and the other, a very beautiful painting of Mrs. Hearst, is now the valuable possession of Hearst Hall. One will look forward to the art exhibition at the Claremont Country Club as one of the most important dates of the early season.

LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF MRS. A. N. TOWNE.

Among the most interesting luncheons of the season was that given last Saturday at the Hotel Fairmont by Mrs. Clinton Worden, who made her mother, Mrs. A. N. Towne, her guest of honor. The luncheon was planned as a great surprise to Mrs. Towne, the occasion being her seventy-ninth birthday.

Last year a notable luncheon was given by Mrs. Towne at the Hotel Fairmont, and among her guests was not one whose friendship was of less than forty years' standing. It represented a most distinguished gathering of women.

Planned along very much the same lines was the luncheon on Saturday, when twelve of Mrs. Towne's dearest friends were asked to luncheon in honor of this seventy-ninth birthday. Most of the guests were friends who had lived together in early pioneer days in San Francisco, and who had seen the small villas grow to a great, prosperous manor.

That wonderful life, poet Moore has sent down to us many things in rhyme, and among others the comforting stanza:

"So life's your brother and closer,
Days though shortening still can shine;
What though youth gave love and roses,
Age still leaves us truer and wiser."

walked together many a mile down life's road.

DEL MONTE OBJECTIVE POINT FOR MOTOR PARTIES.

Del Monte as the objective point for motor parties still continues to hold the center of interest. The Wickham Havens often motor there for the week end, and guests last week at Del Monte were Mrs. King, Mrs. Charles M. King, Mrs. M. S. Ernest Tanner and Joseph King.

Mr. King drives the big touring car with much skill, and the family have enjoyed this season many interesting tours to the southern part of the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles H. Gray have also been at Del Monte recently, and with them were Mr. and Mrs. Schumann.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Stone, with their daughters, Harriet and Marian Stone, returned this week from an interesting motor trip through Mendocino county.

Marian Stone left yesterday for New York to resume her studies at the Spence school.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone have given up their plan of leaving for the season the Kline residence on Broadway, in San Francisco, and will take apartments at the Fairmont instead. The Andrew Stone will also be at the Fairmont this winter, and Miss Jennie Stone is already established there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. A. Miller will also be guests at the Fairmont this winter, having leased for the coming season their home on Pacific avenue.

DISTINGUISHED MEN AT HEARST HOME.

The most noted gathering of wise men that perhaps the West has known in many years was the conference of astronomers which gathered at the Mount Wilson observatory in the latter days of August. Naval men came from leading countries all over the world, and astronomers were present from Oxford, from the Cambridge observatory, from Manchester, and from the observatory at Catania. Many of the astronomers came up to the Lick Observatory, and later the distinguished men were the guests of Mrs. Hearst at the beautiful Hacienda at Pleasanton.

MR. AND MRS. RHEEM GOING EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rheem will leave for the East tomorrow. They are going directly to New York City, where they are planning to spend some days.

YOUNG GIRLS OUT OF THE CITY.

Many of the young girls around whom would center many social activities are to be out of town this season, or else have chosen not to participate in the social round.

Miss Margaret Ogden, the talented daughter of Duke and Mrs. E. H. Ogden, has chosen to devote herself to university work, and is to be the assistant to Miss Lucy Sprague, dean of women at the university.

Miss Patty Chickering, the clever young daughter of the William H.

To her right is an oval portrait of a man with a beard and mustache. The card is decorated with hearts and floral motifs.

FOR NOY VETOES TO SELL MILK IN LIGHT CURRENT PAPER PACKAGES

ORDINANCE

His Action Bars Out the Great Western Power Company.

FIVE COUNCIL MEMBERS APPROVE IT BY VOTE

Seeking Concern May Appeal to the Courts for Redress.

ALAMEDA Oct 1.—The council committee last night before it a proposed ordinance which provides that all milk sold in Alameda must be sold in sealed packages. The measure is not yet introduced and will go to the health board to be filed in before further action is taken.

In the ordinance will revolutionize the selling and handling of milk in this city. It will do away with the big cans from which milk is now measured in the dairy shops and from the milk wagons. Each package will be filled either at the dairy or the daily depot. Grocers selling milk will handle only sealed packages. Paper cartons will probably be principally used owing to their cheapness, and the fact that they cannot be used a second time.

Spill Anderson manager of the Western Dairy Company of this city said this morning the dairy men would not oppose the ordinance. He explained that this was the only way to insure against dirty milk and cited the recent arrests of grocers in this city as an illustration. Grocers must either abandon milk selling or else be protected against by such a law as is provided for by the proposed ordinance.

FORESTERS' OFFICERS HONORED AT BANQUET

HAYWARD Oct 1.—Grand Senior Woodmen of the world of Oakland and Junior Woodmen of the world of Alameda were honored at a banquet given by the Foresters of America in the clubrooms of the Hayward Hotel last night. The two grand officers and the initiation team of the Oakland lodge were escorted to the hall by the Foresters of America.

TAKEN NO ACTION

First—Investigation of the proceedings of the board of electricity shows in fact that as yet no final action has been taken by the board in the matter of the power contracts. The board has been formally made in my judgment the passage of any ordinance by the council at this time would therefore be premature.

The general scope of any contract of the nature of that under consideration is so broad and so far reaching in its effect on our municipal light plant that I have determined since my public duties intervene on the subject that it is not only desirable but imperative that referendum be had thereon. Such being the situation, it is preferable instead of holding the present proceedings in advance until April next, a new proposition be framed and submitted to the electorate to cover the question in all its aspects.

FRUITVALE NEWS OF ELMHURST MELROSE SAN LEANDRO HAYWARD

COLLEGE MUSICIANS WILL GIVE MELODY FOR PLAY

CHARLOTTE KETT, who is to be seen in the English Club's production of Bernard Shaw's play, "Caesar and Cleopatra."

BERKELEY Sept 30.—Under the direction of Paul Stein, who is the University of California's representative for the English Club's production of George Bernard Shaw's comedy, "Caesar and Cleopatra," to be given at the English Club on October 3.

The orchestra, which is composed of over 20 pieces, will render several original songs written especially for the play, among which is the suite de ballet, "Caesar and Cleopatra," written by Paul Stein. The music will be Oriental in character throughout, to conform with the theme of the play, which is set in Egypt.

Coach Garnet Home will start work on the organization of a club which will be an important feature of the play. From the spectacular point of view, and from the light of the stage, the play promises a brilliant spectacle for the eye.

One of the principal parts in the play that of Cleopatra will be taken by Miss Charlotte Kett, a student at the University of California. She is a native of Berkeley and has been in the play since its inception.

The ladies of the club were the guests of honor. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. The firemen cleared $700 at the benefit.

GUN CLUB LEASES LAND FOR PRESERVE

SAN LEANDRO Oct 1.—The members of the San Leandro Gun Club have leased a large tract of land in the city of San Leandro for a preserve. The land is located on the corner of 10th and Washington streets. The club has been in the city for several years and has been successful in its efforts to secure the land.

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME

Every year a large number of poor people are forced to leave their homes. This is due to the fact that they are unable to pay their rent. The city of San Francisco has a large number of such people. They are often found on the streets, begging for food and shelter. The city has a duty to care for them.

IS STILL SHOOTING.

Of William F. Cook, who is still shooting at the Wild West and Far East when it visits the city, will be a display of his unerring marksmanship. He has been in the city for several years and has been successful in his efforts to secure the land.

WANT USE OF TRACTION CURRENT

Contractors Petition Council; License Ordinance Changes Provided for.

ALAMEDA Oct 1.—The petition of the Powell Brothers to the council for the use of traction current for the power of the new Haight school was referred last night to the utility committee. An ordinance was not passed. The petition was not accepted. The council will consider the petition again at a later date.

WELTHY FARMER'S WIFE DISAPPEARS

Leaves Home, Husband and Children, Following Quarrels.

SAN LEANDRO Oct 1.—News has reached San Leandro to the effect that Mrs. John C. Vassar, wife of a wealthy farmer, has disappeared. She left her home, husband and children, following a quarrel. The husband is searching for her. The children are in the care of their grandparents.

DEATH HIDDEN IN CHOCOLATE CREAMS

Boy Falls Into Heavy Sleep and Dies Soon After Eating Candy.

ELMHURST Oct 1.—One of the most tragic cases of child death ever recorded by the local physician was that of a 12-year-old boy who died after eating a box of chocolate creams. The boy had fallen into a heavy sleep and died soon after waking up.

CHILDREN HELP PARK FRIEND

Juveniles Join in the Appeal for Increasing Gutleben's Pay as City Employee.

ALAMEDA Oct 1.—One of the most unique demonstrations by juveniles ever witnessed in Alameda was made before the park and playground commission last night when four boys and girls, principally from the East End, and all patrons of Lincoln Park, appeared before the commission and made an appeal for more wages for their park friend, J. Gutleben, who announced that he would have to give up his position if the pay was not increased.

Gutleben has been receiving $60 a month. His pay last night was raised to $80 a month. The council committee promptly approved the commission's request asking for the raise. In addition to the fifty-four youngsters before the commission, many others stormed the hall and office of the commissioners. Delaney, McLean and Tibbitts in the twenty-four hours preceding the commission's meeting.

The pay of Mrs. A. O. L. V. park manager was raised from $30 to $40 a month.

WELFARE LEAGUES TO HOLD OPEN MEETING

ALAMEDA Oct 1.—The Alameda Welfare League will hold an open meeting at the Methodist church next Monday evening.

WANT BOATHOUSES REMOVED

Messrs. Kearney and McCauley of the East End Club were present at a meeting of the Alameda Improvement Club Thursday night. A committee was appointed to work with a committee from the East End Club on the charter matter. The committee was asked to consider the removal of the boathouses from the park and the removal of the buildings as a nuisance and a detriment to the park and adjoining territory.

OAKLAND LOSES ONE MORE UP NORTH THROUGH ERRATIC PLAYING OF CLYDE WARES

WOLVERINES LOOK WINNERS, BUT GAME IS TOSSED AWAY

Shortstop, Catcher and Second Baseman Make Bobbles in Ninth Frame That Give McCredie-ites Winning Runs

PORTLAND, Oct. 1.—There must be gloom in Oakland today, for it is really tough luck to have a game all wrapped up and ready to stow away and then to have it go by the boards. In the fourth contest between the Beavers and Oaks up to the very last round with two men in the hole it looked as if the men from the south were going to walk off the field with the long end of a 1-to-0 score and make the series two all. Then comes those unforeseen and unlooked-for events in a ball game, and before the fans hardly realized it the Beavers had sent two men over the plate and defeat had been changed into victory.

It was one of those fighting all-the-time games, with the pitchers and their support going great guns, with neither side having an advantage after the first inning, when the Oaks landed on at the plate that looked as big as a mountain. Thus ran the score until the ninth inning, when the big blow-up came off and the curtain was rung down on the tops of the Wolverines.

WILLIS PITCHES GREAT GAME

Ralph Willis did the elab duties for the Oaks and, as in former cases, pitched an excellent game, and it was really a pity to see him have his game tossed away. It was Wares that was the chief offender, and his work at shortstop was most erratic. Up to the eighth inning Wares did not get a chance to handle a ball in the assist line, but when he did it was like water running through a sieve, so the three bobs he made were fierce, and the one Mize made was almost as bad, and these blunders as what just killed a contest that he should have won.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
Sacramento, 4; San Francisco, 0.
Portland, 2; Oakland, 1.
Vernon, 1; Los Angeles, 0.

Charley Graham's rejuvenated Senators came back at the Seals yesterday afternoon good and strong, and for the third time this week gave Danny Long's fired men a lovely trimming. It was Mr. Frank Arrellanes that hung the sign on the Longites, whitewashing them to the merry tune of 4 to 0.

HOW THE SENATORS ALLIED THEIR RUNS

In the opening round Shinn took the first ball pitched on the arm and meant to be a first base short passed ball. But him at second and the "throw 'em up" did. Berry, pegged to the bag and Shinn went to third on the seventh. Shinn was tickled and Heister fanned. Danzig poked a long liner to left that looked foul. Berry went after the ball, opened it, and Shinn beat the return to the plate.

In the sixth inning Van Buren poked a double to left, took third on Heister's single to left and scored on Danzig's safety hit. Right after that, Van Buren was tickled and Heister fanned. Danzig poked a long liner to left that looked foul. Berry went after the ball, opened it, and Shinn beat the return to the plate.

Notes of the Diamond

Sacramento played a much improved game against the Seals yesterday afternoon and gave Arrellanes excellent support, despite the fact that they did make a couple of blunders. Berry was particularly strong at the bat, but he was particularly strong at the bat, but he was particularly strong at the bat.

PITCHER PAPE, who was secured from the Boston Americans by Sacramento. Pape gives promise of being a valuable slabster to the Senatorial outfit.

Berry was particularly strong at the bat, but he was particularly strong at the bat, but he was particularly strong at the bat.

Tommy Tennant without cause the other day, for he was in the top-top shape now and looks don't tell his words. The Senators are far from being a team, but they are playing a game of ball. Next week they go up north, and every fan in this neck of the woods wants to root and root hard for Graham and his men to win.

VERNON TAKES THIRD GAME FROM HIRED MEN OF MEN BERLY

Willett Pitches Eater Ball Than Delhi and Scores Shutout.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—It was a case of Willett's spit ball and the day was a close one for the Beavers. The third straight beating or two, and the Beavers were another last close, close exhibition. Vernon winning by a sharp stick work in the first inning, scored on the first opening round field pitched along in an earnest fashion, allowing the following seven innings.

Willett was also in rare form, and he pitched a three-hitter, a no-hitter being in danger. The Beavers made their first time to realize that the game was on. Carlisle, the first man up, opened a double to left, and then he was out. Willett, a double to left, and then he was out. Willett, a double to left, and then he was out.

Gene McGreevy has received an offer from the Los Angeles Legion to handle the indicator down that way. Whether he will accept remains to be seen, but it is hoped he will go to Los Angeles. The general opinion seems to be that the Athletics could keep in first class condition by daily practice and that this excuse only serves to cover up the real purpose, which is to pick up some easy money.

ATHLETICS WILL PLAY ALL STAR BALL TEAM

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Baseball fans are protesting against Dan Johnson's scheme to play the Philadelphia Athletics against a selected team of all-stars during the week. It is claimed that this will cheapen the world's series, as an all-star team is certain to beat the Athletics. The general opinion seems to be that the Athletics could keep in first class condition by daily practice and that this excuse only serves to cover up the real purpose, which is to pick up some easy money.

CARROLL WINS BY CLOSE DECISION FROM SAM KELLER

Louis Blot's Show Furnishes Fans With High Class Contests With the Mitts; Dennis Defeats Harris Most Handily

WHEN the gong ending the ten-round contest between Jimmy Carroll and Sammy Keller was rung by the time-keeper last evening at the Dreamland Pavilion it ended one of the best scraps that has been seen about the bay in many days. The contest was nip and tuck from beginning to end, with both young fellows doing their utmost to win, and when Eddie Hanlon raised the hand of Carroll as an indication that in his mind the electrician had won the crowd present received the verdict in a rather different manner. It was a close line to draw to pick a winner in the battle of last night and even many of the friends of Carroll thought him lucky.

Granting that the referee has the better opportunity to see the points scored during a contest and with a realization that Hanlon's ruling was the correct one, it is not our intention to criticize his ruling. Carroll did the greater portion of the leading during the contest and if there was a shade to be given he no doubt deserved it. The line drawn was just a bit fine, however. If Carroll really feels as he says he is in his boots that he was entitled to the decision last night, then he has no kick to make on the decision. Carroll was on from him in Oakland, for the referee beat Jimmy by a much greater margin in the six rounds fought here than Jimmy beat him last evening. As we have said from the first of the present match, Carroll trained for this match with greater care as to his condition and as a result he entered the ring in much better fettle than he did for the losing battle in Oakland. Jimmy led more, counted better and did not tire so quickly. In fact, the "beano" put up a much better battle. At the outset of the contest Keller stood with the lead and had the better of the first round.

CARROLL COMES BACK STRONG.

Carroll came back for it, however, and at the beginning of the fifth things were fairly even with the shade in favor of Keller. In the sixth round Keller took a brave and from the start he forced Carroll about the ring, trying to land a knock out. After about half the round had been fought Jimmy caught Jimmy at the ropes and after a short struggle, during which the visitor landed several hard wallops, Jimmy was almost put down with a "right overhand swing." The ropes saved the little fellow from being down and during the next minute he non-skipped it about the ring at a lively rate. Any man who ever questioned the goodness of Carroll, and who has seen him as a pugilist, are made wondrous.

At the end of the round Jimmy tried hard with his left hand, landed several good punches, and after a short struggle, during which the visitor landed several hard wallops, Jimmy was almost put down with a "right overhand swing." The ropes saved the little fellow from being down and during the next minute he non-skipped it about the ring at a lively rate. Any man who ever questioned the goodness of Carroll, and who has seen him as a pugilist, are made wondrous.

JIMMY DOES NOT LIKE ROUGH WORK.

Jimmy didn't seem to like the rough work of the visitor in the fifth and sixth rounds, and what he did in the last few rounds was pretty good. At the end of the contest he was pretty good. At the end of the contest he was pretty good. At the end of the contest he was pretty good.

SALE OF PACIFIC
MAIL IS DENIED

San Francisco Officials Deny
Company Has Gone to British Concern.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 1. — The Royal Mail Steam Packet Company with headquarters in London, England, has completed negotiations for the purchase of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's fleet and has given the latter company a check for $6,750,125.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1. — At the office of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company the cable report from London that the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company had purchased the fleet of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company is emphatically denied. It is stated further that negotiations were never under way with that object in view.

DENIED ACROSS TAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1. — The dispatch stating that the fleet of the Pacific Mail had been purchased by the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company was also denied locally last night. It was pointed out that R. P. Schwerin is at present in the Orient in an effort to secure new business for the company, while it began its San Francisco-Panama express service only yesterday.

A. W. Elliott, a brother-in-law of Schwerin and an official of the Harriman lines, said it was incredible to him that such a transaction could have been carried out. He said the sale of the fleet would have to be ratified by the stockholders in any event and that the transfer could not be made in such an offhand manner.

ARMY OFFICIALS WORRY
OVER PEARY'S ABSENCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1. — The Navy Department is uncertain as to what action it will take in the event of extension of leave of absence of Captain Robert E. Peary, who has been so much away from the department since leaving his explorations. A problem now confronting the department is just what assignment should be made him or what to do in the matter of leave. It was pointed out that the time covered in his previous application.

Ticking in the throat, hoarseness, loss of voice, indicate the need of BALT-LARD'S HOLLAND SYRUP. It cures the lungs, quiets the cough and restores health in the bronchial tubes. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Wisheart's Drug Store, Tenth and Washington streets.
